

Aaron Sanchez

VICE PRESIDENT OF HEALTH PLAN/HOSPITAL/ANCILLARY CONTRACTS, AHN

Aaron Sanchez serves as AltaMed Health Network, Inc. (AHN)'s Vice President of Health Plan/Hospital/Ancillary Contracts. He came to AHN with over 25 years of experience in managed care. Aaron's journey with AHN began in 2020 amidst the challenges of the pandemic, where he played a vital role in AHN's startup phase. Today, he manages the development, operations, and results of Plan-to-Plan Agreements and Hospital/Ancillary Network.

Aaron previously served as the Director of Contracting for Molina Healthcare of California, where he developed, evaluated, and maintained Medical Group/IPA Hospital and Ancillary Provider Network for Los Angeles County. Prior to that, he was the Regional Director at Molina Healthcare Inc., where he managed and led all assigned contracting and provider services for Molina's national provider/vendor relationships, and including direct management of Medicaid, Medicare, and Marketplace lines of business.

Aaron has a Bachelor of Arts in History from California State University, Fullerton.
